Dear Ms. Dortch:

On November 19, 2013, Free Press President and CEO Craig Aaron joined representatives of other public interest, media justice and civil rights organizations to meet with Chairman Wheeler and his staff.

Chairman's staff members in attendance included: Ruth Milkman, Chief of Staff; Philip Verveer, Senior Counselor; Gigi B. Sohn, Special Counsel for External Affairs; Diane Cornell, Special Counsel; Daniel Alvarez, Legal Advisor for Wireline, Public Safety, and Homeland Security; Renee Gregory, Legal Advisor for Engineering and Technology, Wireless, and Incentive Auctions; and Maria Kirby, Legal Advisor for Media, Consumer and Governmental Affairs, and Enforcement. Additional staff in attendance included Jon Sallet, current head of the Technology Transitions Policy Task Force; Bill Lake, Chief, Media Bureau; and Roger Sherman, Acting Chief, Wireless Telecommunications Bureau.

During the meeting, Mr. Aaron confined his comments to matters in the above-captioned dockets. He focused on the Free Press priorities set forth in the attached document, which was submitted to the Chairman's staff in conjunction with the meeting.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Matthew F. Wood
